- Romp around outside and move their bodies
- Buddy up with friends and practice teamwork
- Discover new things about themselves and the world

What matters to you matters to us.

We asked families what they want most out of a summer program. Here's what we learned:

- 1. You want your kids to have a balance of learning and fun.
Our talented staff and planned activities nurture healthy bodies, happy hearts, and growing minds.
- 2. Spending quality time with friends and nurturing social-emotional skills is at the top of your list.
We'll help kids nurture their relationships and practice approaching the world with compassion, empathy, resilience, and curiosity.
- 3. You love leadership opportunities for your kids.
Through junior counselor roles and group projects, your child will find many moments to shine.
- 4. You want your kiddo to be a good person and a great global citizen.
Every day, we'll help them think about big issues in ways that inspire creative problem-solving and global stewardship.
